

ISNSW HALF DAY SEMINAR

FRIDAY, 22 JUNE 2018

1:00 – 4:00 PM

Presenters: Breellen Warry; Wal Dobrow and Adrian Barden

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

BREELLEN WARRY, Partner, Holding Redlich Lawyers
"Coal Mine Subsidence Compensation Act: navigating the new regime"

Breellen is a Partner within the Property and Projects team and specialises in environmental, development and planning and natural resources law. Breellen advises both private and public sector clients across various industries on planning, environment and government matters and has worked both within and for government agencies in NSW and in the UK. Breellen has particular expertise in providing practical, strategic legal advice on Federal and State planning and environmental approvals processes.

WAL DOBROW, Managing Director, Dobrow Valuations
"Case Law - Unit Entitlement Valuations - the different valuation methods between Community and Strata Schemes, and dealing with vacant land and heritage buildings."

Wal Dobrow is a Valuer with over 30 years experience and specialises in Strata and Compulsory Acquisition Matters. He has recently drafted the majority of the Australian Property Institute's NSW Guidance for the Valuation of Unit Entitlements, and was instrumental to the change in legislation for Valuers to carry out the unit entitlements for each strata scheme, and the basis of compensation paid in the compulsory termination of a strata scheme. He wrote the Common Property Memorandum that has (with public servant changes) gone into legislation. He is also an expert in the presentation of Expert Evidence and has been presenting at the API Expert Witness Courses for over nine years. He will also discuss who is and who is NOT a 'Qualified Valuer' under the new legislative requirements.

ADRIAN BARDEN, Strata Certifier, Grinsell & Johns
"Dual Occupancy – Torrens Subdivision, Low Rise Medium Density Housing SEPP Amendment"

Adrian Barden from Grinsell & Johns has been engaged in surveying and development since 1988. He is a strata certifier and is also able to issue complying development certificates for Strata Subdivision. Adrian has been training candidates for BOSSI registration since 2014 and has been involved with the UDIA, ISNSW and ACS from 1998, including 6 years as Chairman of the Cumberland Group of Surveyors. He is a registered land surveyor and has a Bachelor of Engineering and Masters of Engineering Science. Adrian is a partner at Grinsell & Johns. Adrian will be outlining the changes to the Strata Legislation through the Strata Reform agenda. He will outline obligations of Strata Certifiers under the NSW Legislation as well as present some interesting examples.
